

Creative Writing - Setting Questionnaire

Think about the setting (i.e. location, landscape, time period, cultural world) for your Telling a Story assignment. Put a check next to the ways you will use setting to strengthen your writing.

- add vivid description and sensual imagery to your story that engages the reader
- provide a constant element that weaves together characters and storylines
- illustrate the personality of your main character
- contribute to a change in your character
- create a mood or atmosphere within your story
- be the cause of events within your story
- provide one or more metaphors that speak to the meaning you want to convey

Creative Writing - Setting Questionnaire

Think about the setting (i.e. location, landscape, time period, cultural world) for your Telling a Story assignment. Put a check next to the ways you will use setting to strengthen your writing.

- add vivid description and sensual imagery to your story that engages the reader
- provide a constant element that weaves together characters and storylines
- illustrate the personality of your main character
- contribute to a change in your character
- create a mood or atmosphere within your story
- be the cause of events within your story
- provide one or more metaphors that speak to the meaning you want to convey