House of Representatives - Instructions

Part 1
Divide according to your preferences into Federalists and Anti-Federalists
Whichever group has the most people elects the Speaker of House from among their group
They also elect a Majority Leader
They also elect a Majority Whip
The Speaker of the House gets the Instructions and manages the rest of the activity
The group with the least people does the same. They elect a Minority Leader and a Whip
Speaker of the House chooses two Chairs for two committees
- Apples Committee
- Bananas Committee
Speaker tells others in the group whether to go to apples or bananas.
Minority Leader assigns group members to apples and bananas

Part II
Apple gets two "bills" -- two vision statements; bananas get one vision statement
Committees vote on the bills
Approved bills come back to Speaker
Speaker sends bills back to either Apples or Bananas to combine them into one bill
Committee Chair creates subcommittees as necessary to complete this task
Whichever committee has the bill discusses the final version
Committee votes on any last minute changes; an approved bill goes back to the Speaker

Part III
Speaker appoints members to a House Rules Committee and decides on a Chair
The Speaker sends the approved bill to the Rules Committee
The Rules Committee, under the direction of the chair, decides if representatives can offer amendments on the House floor.
Once this is decided, they send the bill back to the Speaker

Part IV
The Speaker schedules debate on the House Floor and manages discussion; the Whips counts votes; the Majority and Minority Leaders answers questions
If the House Rules Committee approves amendments, the whole House must vote on them
If amendments aren't allowed, the whole House votes
A majority passes the bill

Part V
Speaker and Minority Leader each pick a small number for a Conference Committee
These people meet with selected Senator to put the two bills together
The final bill comes back to the Speaker who schedules a vote on the House Floor
The Speaker manages the final vote

U.S. Senate - Instructions

Part 1
Divide according to your preferences into Federalists and Anti-Federalists
Whichever group has the most people elects the Majority Leader from among their group
They also elect a Majority Whip
The Majority Leader receives the instructions and manages the rest of the activity
The group with the least people does the same. They elect a Minority Leader and a Whip
Majority Leader chooses two Chairs for two committees
- Aardvarks Committee
- Banshees Committee
Speaker tells others in the group whether to go to aardvarks or banshees
Minority Leader assigns group members to aardvarks and banshees

Part II
Each committee get one vision statement
Committees vote on the bills
Approved bills come back to Majority Leader
Majority Leader them back to either Aardvarks or Banshees to combine them into one bill
Committee Chair creates subcommittees as necessary to complete this task
Whichever committee has the bill discusses the final version
Committee votes on any last minute changes; an approved bill goes back to the Majority Leader

Part III
The Majority Leader schedules debate on the Senate Floor and manages discussion
If Senators offer amendments, the whole Senate must vote on them
The whole Senate votes on the final bill - 60% of senators is needed to pass the bill

Part IV
The Majority and Minority Leader each pick a small number of Senators for a Conference Committee
These people meet with selected members of the House of Representatives to put the two bills together
The final bill comes back to the Majority Leader who schedules a vote on the Senate Floor
The Majority Leader manages the final vote - 60% of senators is needed to pass the bill